CHILD PROTECTION & WELFARE BUREAU

Children are the future of any nation and safeguarding of the rights of children is very important for any nation. Government of the Punjab has established Child Protection & Welfare Bureau under Punjab Destitute and Neglected Children Act 2004 in order to provide protection, care, rehabilitation and welfare to the destitute and neglected children. These children are provided with food and shelter as well as education and vocational training to turn them into useful citizens. Child Protection & Welfare Bureau is currently working in eight districts of Punjab including Lahore, Gujranwala, Multan, Faisalabad, Rawalpindi, Sialkot, Bahawalpur and Rahim Yar Khan. Child Protection & Welfare aims to help the vulnerable children and to turn them into useful and productive members of the society.
